LOVE FEAST IN CLAY WARD

Actives Eat, Drink and Hear Speeches.

NO POLITICS INVOLVED

Evening a Most Enjoyable One, and Interest in Club Work is Revived. Many Happy Responses Made Amld Great Enthusiasm.

The Clay Ward Actives held a social session and smoker last night at Belvidere Hall, and the members of the club and candidates thoroughly enjoyed the occasion. The meeting was not a political one, and while those spiring to public places were called upon for speeches, they had little to say concerning their candidacy.

The affair was purely informal, and a few hours were spent in social intercourse and in chatting over the political situation in a general way. Sandwiches, cream, cigars and light drinks were served, and the evening was greatly enjoyed by all.

important engagement elsewhere, submitted a few limely remarks and retired.
The Committee of Arrangements was composed of Messrs. S. J. B. Wright, E.
J. Walton, Joseph Frith, R. J. Carlton, and A. L. Barfoot, and they made the Casion a very happy one on their own

Nation a very happy one on their own part.

When the inner man had been satisfied Vice-President D. F. Craddock rapped the assemblage to order, and Mayor Taylor was called upon. His Honor thanked the club for the entertainment, which was so much enjoyed, and he welcomed the laying aside of partigan politics for a time and the participation in what he called a Democratic love feast.

Mr. Henry L. Carter introduced Mr. C. A. Boyce to give his impressions as a newspaper man of the new Constitution, and the latter responded briefly, prefacing his remarks with the statement that some ten years ago he had been rocked in the Democratic cradle by the Clay Ward Actives.

Ward Actives, CAPTAIN E. B. THOMASON, CAPTAIN E. B. THOMASON.
Captain E. B. Thomason, one of the House candidates, responded very happlly. Major L. T. Christian's remarks were very brief. He said he only desired to announce "Lang Christian for the House." Mr. E. P. Cox referred incidentally to his candidacy for the House, though he did not dwell at length upon this, having been happy in his reference to the good record of the club for party work.

Captain Watson made a very pretty little speech, in which he threw some bouqueta at the club, and Charlie Wallace followed him briefly on the same line.

lace followed him when the seeking re-election to the City Democratic Committee simply announced his candidacy, and Mr II. L. Carter made some very withy remarks, which were liberally cheered.

OTHER SPEECHES.

Mr. W. A. Crenshaw extolled the virtues of the Actives for a few moments and Mr. E. M. Pileher, who is a candidate for the City Committee, wound up the ball with some timely aneedodes, and the incidental announcement that he would like to win out on Tuesday.

FIRES IN MECKLENBURG

Country Store and Slock Burned by an Incendiary-Dwe'ling Destroyed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BOYDTON, VA. Sept. 19.—The store house of Henry T. Jones, about three miles northeast of this place, was burned early this morning, together with his entire stock of goods, and without a dollar's worth of insurance on either house or goods.

An incendiary probably distribute the or scotch.

An incendiary probably first robbed the store and then set fire to it. Mr. Jones is a poor man and had his whole estate in this property. He had gone to his home, when the fire occurred.

James W. Hendrick, of Palmers' Springs, had his dwelling destroyed by fire Wednesday afternoon. Insurance, $500. There was no fire in the house at the time, and Mr. Hendrick thinks it was set on fire by rats. Mr. Hendrick had another residence burned about fifteen years since.

COUNCIL IN MANCHESTER

To Meet Tuesday Night to Choose City Attorney.

A TALK WITH MR. PAGE

Will Not Resign as Commonwealth's Attorney-Mr. Rives' Campaign. Speaks in Swansboro-Coming Marriage-Personal Notes.

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, ?

Manchester Bureau Times-Dispatch, No. 1102 Hull Street. The Common Council will be called to meet on Tuesday night to felect a successor to Judge Clopton as City Attorney. There are only two candidates in the field, Mr. Charles L. Page and Mr. D. J. Pulliam. From present indications Mr. Page has the call.

In reference to the question brought up by several members of the Council concerning the holding of two places at one time, Mr. Page was seen by a Times-Dispatch man last night and asked whether, in view of this opinion, apparently held by some of the members, he would agree to resign his present office as a condition of being elected City Attorney.

torney.
"Most assuredly not," said Mr. Page in reply, "If the Alderman referred to has been correctly quoted, I do not think he has considered the matter carefully. It is a well known fact that the last City Attorney of Manchester was elected for twelve or more successive tarms, while holding all the while the county judgetwelve or more successive terms, while holding all the while the county judgeship of Chesterfield, I am not aware that he was ever asked to resign the latter office as a condition of his election to the former, and it is a moral impossibility for any self-respecting lawyer to submit to such a condition, more especially when it was nover exacted of his immediate predecessor. Indeed, I have grave doubt whether such a transaction does not constitute the buying and selling of offices, which is an indictable crime at common law."

"But some doubt has been expressed hether you can legally hold both of stitute the buying and selling of chicks, which is an indictable crime at common law."

"But some doubt has been expressed whether you can legally hold both offices," said the reporter.

"Then that is a doubt which the Council, if they entertain it, can very easily solve, if they care to do so, by electing some one clso." Mr. Pugo repiled. "My name is in the hands of my friends, for use or not, just as they think proper, Personally, however, I entertain no such doubt. Certainly the Constitution does not prohibit the holding of the two offices by one person, and I do not think that the two offices are in the slightest degree incompatible. If they were, however, this would not prevent my acceptance of the office of City Attorney. It would simply, in such case, vacate my present office. But in no event can I, or will I, bargain for that office or any other. If I am elected at all, it must be unhampered by bargains or conditions of any sort, save to do my duty freely."

Mr. Pulliam could not be seen. But this friends are working assiduously for him. They do not claim his election, but they have hopes, and will not give up the fight, despite the splendid showling made by Mr. Page's friends.

MR. RIVES SPEAKS.

Robert S. Rives spoke last night in Swansboro to a fair-sized audience in the interest of his candidacy for the House of Deligates.

Mr. Rives, after having stated the personal reasons why he hoped the people of Swansboro would cast their baiots for himself, said in part:

"I have tried to conduct this campaign on a high plane. I have studiously avoided making any personal allusions to my opponent. I stand for purity in polities and manhood in office. This is my tenth speech, and possibly my last. I do not say one thing here that I did not say in the home of my opponent.

"I have challenged him to go over the district with me, offering him the opening and the closing and ten more minutes we should onsume cmtw shrill may be experience and trahing as a lawyer and speaker precluded his acceptance of my experience

In the coerse of the fracas Harris produced his razor and proceeded to carve Marshall. He inflicted an ugly wound, which laid open the man's right shoulder and extended down the back. Blood flowed so copiously as to cause alarm, but Dr. Merchant, who was called, stopped the hemorrhage and dressed the wound. Officers Smith and Waymack located the carver and arrested him. REGISTRATION IS A DISAPPOINTMENT

The registration for the five days preceding the primary election closed yes terday, with the result that the entir registration has been rather a disappoint terday, with the result that the either registration has been rather a disappointment to the Democratic party and the registration officers. While complete figures of registration and transfers have not been made out yet by the officers, it is a fact that the registrations will hardly average over 75 to a precinct. Inquiry at the headquarters of the Marshall Ward Board yesterday afternoon late, elleited the information that the registration during the week would not aggregate over 75 in the ward. In Monroe Ward the fotal registration for the five days was placed at 100. This is one of the largest wards in the city. The registrations in Madison and Jackson Wards will hardly reach these figures. In Jefferson, Clay and Lee they will hardly run above the average, unless it be in Clay.

Estimating on the basis of 75 for six wards and placing one at 100 gives a total (approximated) registration in the city for the week of not over 550 and probably only 500.

ofty for the week of not over see and probably only 500.

There will be no more registration until Wednesday, when the Boards will begin sittings at places to be stated elsewhere in advertisements. The sittings will continue Thursday, Friday and Saturday and be resumed on Monday, the
